SUMMARY

I'm a Computer Engineering student at MET Institute of Engineering, Nashik. I'm well-versed in C++, Python, HTML5, CSS, and basic JavaScript. I recently interned at Netleap IT Training and Solutions, gaining hands-on experience. I've also worked with Suvridha Foundation. My projects include a cricket website, personal portfolio, a student management system in C++, and an ATM system in Python. I am enthusiastic about exploring new technologies and honing my skills to make meaningful contributions in the field of computer engineering. I am open to exciting opportunities that align with my passion for technology and innovation.
